Carols for Choir and Audience

lcchoir.uk

Join London Concert Choir for our annual evening of festive choral music, from familiar Christmas carols to rare treats and new compositions. As always, the audience are invited to join in singing some of the best known Christmas carols and hymns, ensuring an uplifting celebration of the season.

London Concert Choir marked its 60th anniversary in 2020. Renowned for its committed, musically versatile performances under Mark Forkgen, it regularly graces top venues and has toured France, Germany, Italy, Poland, and Spain.

Recent highlights include Mendelssohn's St Paul and Duke Ellington's Sacred Concert, while in previous seasons the varied repertoire ranged from Rachmaninov's choral symphony The Bells with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and Elgar's Dream of Gerontius to Mendelssohn's Elijah, Brahms' German Requiem, and Vaughan Williams' Sea Symphony with Southbank Sinfonia. The choir's 50th anniversary featured two ambitious performances of Britten's War Requiem in contrasting venues, the Barbican and Salisbury Cathedral.

Concert operas span Purcell's King Arthur and Dido and Aeneas to Gershwin's Porgy and Bess. With Counterpoint ensemble, LCC has performed Handel's Messiah, Bach's St Matthew and St John Passions, Christmas Oratorio, Monteverdi's Vespers of 1610, Mozart's 'Great' C minor Mass, Rachmaninov's Vespers, Will Todd's Mass in Blue, and Rodgers and Hammerstein musicals.

Commissions include Alison Willis's A Light not yet Ready to Go Out (for Breast Cancer Now) and Roderick Williams's Per Ardua ad Astra (RAF centenary).
